

Mrs. Mandel's Class: News and Notes

January 11, 2019

What Are We Learning?

Literacy

Our class has finished writing informational essays on the animal which they became experts on. We are writing choose your own adventure type narrative pieces this week!

Math:

We have moved on from studying methods for division and will start our unit on fractions this week. Our fraction unit is one of our largest and most important math topics this year. Please see the parent letter in your child's Friday Folder pertaining to what your child will be learning.

Social Studies:

Students have moved onto working with Mrs. Smith for social studies and are learning about the exploration of early NC. This week, they will learn about colonial NC.

PTA News

Informed, Involved, Supportive

* Pride Pack needs your plastic grocery bags in order to serve 300/week. Collection bins are in the office and teachers' room. Thank you in advance!

* 2/10 is LES night @ Triangle Rock Club 6:30-8:30pm. <https://trianglerock.club/les> for details and registration

Notes from Mrs. Mandel

- Our next field trip will take place on 2/14/19. We will travel to downtown Raleigh to visit the Legislative Building, State Capitol, and the History Museum.
- We are in need of pencil top erasers. If you would like to donate any, I would greatly appreciate it!
- Please continue to monitor your child's agenda and homework folders. Assignments should be written nightly and due dates are always given for students to write down.
- No Family Dialogue Journal this week. Students will be working on their narrative stories in place of the FDJ.
